Let's explore how we can create an outstanding program at your institution.

Let Integrity 1st bring to your institution our 30 years of experience in higher education learning support. Debbie's passion for the field and dedication to improving it earned her last department the 2016 ATP Program of Excellence Award and Levels I, II, and III CRLA program certification. Their students achieved phenomenal outcomes that were reflected in a 500% increase in utilization levels in five years and student course success rates in the mid-80s to low 90s. She has presented at the ATP, NCLCA, NTA, and ACTLA national conferences and the ACE Women's Network and NEPTA regional conferences.

Learning Center Support Solutions for 21st Century Challenges

Whether you are a new learning center administrator building a program or an experienced manager trying to achieve program-specific goals, create open lines of communication internally and/or externally, or start to change the culture of tutoring at your school, we can help.

We Help You:

- Craft and sell your strategic mission plan to the various stakeholders at your institution
- Set up and track KPIs and goals
- Designate and implement program-specific marketing strategies for internal audiences, prospective students, and their families
- Analyze your institutional populations to identify their needs
- Increase utilization levels through student engagement
- Open lines of communication across the institution
- Discuss how current learning strategies such as grit and metacognition can enhance your center
- Design or optimize your center
- Determine the best staffing for your needs
- Explore and achieve the best professional certifications for your program and/or program administrators

Services may be provided in person and/or remotely.

Pricing is contract-specific and dependent upon the range of services provided, potential travel involved, and duration of the arrangement.
